USING THIS GUIDE

WORSHIP SERIES

A peek at the spiritual path we'll journey together as a congregation in the coming months.

KIDS

In a society focused on a big, shiny, perfectly wrapped Christmas season, it is no wonder the single most important part of Christmas gets lost in the shuffle. God's greatest gift to us, Jesus Christ, our Savior, made a humble and purposeful entrance into the world. During this season of Advent our children will learn just how precious this gift was and still is. Through our curriculum and events, such as Breakfast In Bethlehem, we will open their hearts and minds to God's love and grace given to us in a tiny, vulnerable and beautiful package.

YOUTH

Christmas can be an exciting time for youth. Decorations, shopping, music, and who doesn't love a great present? Its great to celebrate this wonderful time of year, but the truth is, we can get a little too caught up in popular Christmas. What would it look like if we stripped away some of the glitter and sparkle to find the true meaning of Christmas again? To find God's daring grace in the incredible incarnation story that exists in the nativity. Join us this month as we search for the holy divine in the holiday season.

ADULTS

Dare to listen to the sounds of the season. Dare to step into a greater relationship with the baby that was born so long ago to save a nation. Dare to be vulnerable with your church family. Dare to live a life worthy of God's calling. Join us this Advent season as we Dare together to experience love on earth just as they did so many years ago when love came down as Jesus Christ. There are many opportunities to connect with your church family as we experience the grace and wonder of the season through food, fellowship, study and worship.

Prayer Requests

Pastor Chris at Breakfast at Bethlehem 2016

God is calling bold disciples.

Christmas teaches us about the Daring Grace of God. God loved us so much that he stepped out of Heaven and in Jesus showed us his power and love. When Jesus called his disciples to follow him, he called them to push beyond their comfort zones and to face their fears and the unknown to share that life-changing grace. In living out that Daring Faith, the disciples risked it all and they were never the same. Their lives poured out love that changed lives and forever shaped human history.

Today, God calls you and me to no less than that same bold discipleship and the willingness to risk following him into the unknown of the uncertain times in which we live. Often, we want to think that the greatest things are possible when life is at its best and we are sure of ourselves, but rarely is that the case. Daring Faith comes when we are pushed beyond our limits and our the circumstances have overwhelmed us to the point our strength and intelligence. It is at the edge of our individual capacity that God does his greatest work.

If you want to be challenged to take your life and your faith to another level, join our church on this journey of Daring Faith beginning January 7. It is not going to be easy. We are going to talk about tough stuff, but I believe if you are willing to commit yourself to it, God can do something amazing.

The truth is Sunday morning will not be enough to get you to the places you know you want to go in your life. Risking building new relationships and meeting new people is critical. We know this in business, in sports, and in fitness; supportive community is critical to success! There are opportunities for all ages and their ways to engage your faith through study, worship, and service. We want you to get the one out of your experience as a part of our church family and our teams are committed to helping you find your place. Please reach to me or to our team and we will do our best to answer your questions and get you the resources you need.

Thank you for being our guest at Argyle United Methodist Church. I am ready to step up with you going into this new year!

Blessings,
Pastor Chris

NOVEMBER 26-DECEMBER 17

Our consumer economy has hijacked Christmas.

While we love made-for-TV movies, food, family and gifts, Christmas is about so much more.

It is a conspiracy - a revolutionary act by God to ultimately undermine the power of sin and darkness in human history. In God's work of Daring Grace, God risked taking on human form so that we could know the power of a love that can change the world and transform our lives.

Beginning Nov. 26, we will recall God's willingness to hear us in our greatest times of darkness, step into the fragile times of life with us, and give us the strength to live with Daring Grace.

HIGHLIGHTS

NOVEMBER 26

DARING TO LISTEN

Exodus 3:1-12

One of the most powerful things about God is that God listens to us. And, it is not just that God listens to us, but God gets engaged.

DECEMBER 3

DARING TO STEP INTO OUR LIVES

Philippians 2:1-11

The power of what God does is that God is willing to step down into human history and into our lives. The incarnation is critical to how God wants us to experience his love

DECEMBER 10

DARING TO BE VULNERABLE

Luke 2:1-10

We experience the power of Christmas in God's willingness to be vulnerable. To live as an infant among us.

DECEMBER 17

DARING TO LIVE

Luke 1:26-38

The promise of Jesus comes to Mary and with all that will come and change her life, she is willing to live into the call of God on her life.

*We have a bold,
robust, and resilient faith—grounded in the transforming grace of God. We have a Daring Faith.*

In Christmas, we celebrated the Daring Grace of God that we witnessed to in God stepping out of Heaven and becoming fully human and fully divine in Jesus Christ. It is because of God's grace that we have the gift of faith. We know this faith because it is grounded in the life-changing, world transforming grace of God, and it is bold, robust and resilient. In Daring Faith, we talk about living our faith "out loud" by responding to God's calling, growing in our giftedness—saying "yes" to God's grace sending us out into life to be the hands and feet of Jesus.

DARING FAITH

HIGHLIGHTS

JANUARY 7 SEEKING TRUTH

Hebrews 11:1, 32-4

We'll have an honest conversation about the state of our church, what we have seen over the last 12 months and where we believe God is leading us moving into 2018.

JANUARY 14 GIVE GOD OUR BEST

2 Timothy 2:3-7

Giving God our best means daring to show up as the best version of ourselves. Think progress, not perfection.

JANUARY 21 GROW A DEEPER LIFE

Matthew 22:34-40

In a society that abhors depth, being part of a community committed to growing deeper strengthens our relationships.

JANUARY 28 BE GENEROUS

2 Corinthians 9:1-9

You can give without loving but you cannot love without giving. Deepening our relationship with God means that we grow in our generosity.

FEBRUARY 4 SOW IN FAITH

Galatians 6:7-8

If we bring truth, authenticity, depth and generosity together what could our life really look like? How would living a life that bears the fruit of that kind of faith affect the lives of our families, neighbors, teams, our schools, and our world?

FEBRUARY 11 DARE TO GO IN FAITH

Acts 1:8

God calls us to move into new places and build new relationships so that his love can spread and people can experience a taste of heaven on earth. How do we listen for the Spirit's call and how do we show up with giftedness and passion for the sake of the Kingdom?

Shining for God BY DANA LAY

We all have spiritual gifts. While it may take some of us longer to recognize, accept and use these gifts to glorify God, some of us, like Dorothy Pritts, learn and apply these gifts at a young age. Dorothy is a 5th grader at Argyle Intermediate and enjoys tennis, horseback riding and using her artist skills whenever possible. Dorothy with her father Jeff, her mother Marci and older brother Wayne started their "Try 5" at Argyle UMC in June of this year. Dorothy and I met in August when our Fast5 started back up on Wednesday nights. I discovered early on that she had a servant's heart.

Wednesday nights with our Fast5 are just that, fast. Those nights are fast, noisy and fun, but they are also a great starting point for our youth to start discovering truths about God and what their role is in God's family. It only took a week or so for myself and the other adult leaders to realize that Dorothy has a servant's heart and she is not afraid to use it. Dorothy loves to lead her peers in our discussions on Wednesday nights. She is also always willing to set up before a class and clean up after everyone has gone home. While she is always willing and does these things with a smile on her face, she did admit to me that she does not always like to do chores at home. On Sunday mornings at our 11am Sunday School hour she is usually only one of two or three 5th graders and regularly helps check children in and lead our small groups. In fact, she casually asked what I was doing behind the computer one Sunday and when I told her I was checking children in she immediately asked how she could help.

Dorothy's love for God shines through in everything that she does. While I'm sad that this will be her last year with our children's ministry, I am elated that she will have Carla Hilburn, our Middle School Youth Director, and Craig Lay, our Senior High Youth Director, to mentor and help her grow in her faith. Whether she chooses to become a teacher or an artist or an animal rescuer I know that she will fill the world with God's love through her servant's heart.

Kimberly Giese and Ms. Betty Elizabeth

Youth volunteers at Mayberry Gardens

My time at Mayberry Gardens

BY KIMBERLY GIESE

I loved spending time at Mayberry Gardens nursing home and having fun with Ms. Betty Elizabeth. As soon as we chose our new friends, she was welcoming. From there, we talked about our love of bingo. We laughed and shared our thoughts about our unlucky (bingo) card. By the third round I had learned about her life, siblings, and thoughts on the world.

Once we shouted "WE WON!" for bingo, she gave me her headband, which was her prize for winning, and we even got some more (another head band). We took some photos of us as twinsies. At the very end of the day when we were leaving she asked me if I was coming back next year and said she that she is going to teach me how to crochet. I told her I will for sure be back, and prepared for a crochet lesson. Mayberry Gardens and Ms. Betty Elizabeth strengthen my faith in Christ and my eyes on the world.

All students are invited to participate in the incredible work that God is stirring in the hearts of our youth. You can find opportunities to engage with our Argyle Youth at argyleyouth.org or on Facebook at facebook.com/argyleyouth1.

Sharing a Table

BY JENNIFER TOLIN

Women's ministry at Argyle UMC is committed to the spiritual development of every woman, no matter her age, in this community. From fellowship opportunities like an afternoon spring tea and Christmas BUNCO to opportunities to walk together with God through retreats and engaging speakers, Light Women's ministry is a beacon of hope and joy in this congregation. They serve each day in their community and beyond.

This year, the group wanted to embrace the intergenerational nature we have here, and encourage women in different stages of life. During our last sermon series, we talked about all of the ways that God's people gathered around tables and food. A Supper Club seemed like a great place to begin.

Sharon Montcalm eagerly volunteered her home as a place to host one of the small group Supper Clubs. With a tex-mex theme, the group of six women were welcomed into Sharon's living room—knowing no one—and began to chat. A list of ice-breakers designed to help women to go deeper together faster was at the ready, but this group didn't need it. There was an ease and comfort between members of the same faith family that would extend to many more meals to come. Sharon shares the experience best, "I love gathering with my Supper Club ladies!! We have the best time laughing and sharing life's adventures across generations. I read recently that as Christians we all have a Paul and Timothy in our life when we share community with other believers; meaning the mentoring Paul shared with Timothy while establishing the church. And then the roles would reverse as Paul would learn from Timothy. These ladies are my Paul and Timothy."

May we all find our Paul and Timothy in our church family. If you're interested in joining a Supper Club group, reach out to Jennifer at jennifer@argyleumc.org.
